BROWN BATTERED;
PITTSBURGH WINS

Pittsbugs Take Kindly to Mordecai's Slants, Banging Out 15 Hits For a Total of 28 Bases.

BARGER IS ALSO RAPPED HARD

Pitchers Cheney of Cubs Goes to Dodgers in Deal, While Bruins Get Joseph Schultz.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—Fifteen hits for a total of 28 bases was the reception the Pittsburgh Rebels extended to Mordecai Brown yesterday afternoon, and they trimmed the Whales by the count of 7 to 4. The three-fingered veteran had little outside of an old glove with which to fool the near-pennant winners, and four doubles and two triples were mixed in with the nine singles.

The Whales also enjoyed a regular batting bee, as they snatched 13 hits. All of them were singles and most of them were forthcoming when two were out. They kept long Cy Barger in a fever heat in all but two of the nine sessions, and Bunney Hearn was kept warmed up throughout the engagement.

Joe Weiss, the Chicago boy who came here with the Whales after his debut in Chicago Sunday, played a rattling game as first base, his fielding being one of the features. He poled only one safe blow, however, but it scored a run. He had four trials and slammed the ball hard each time, but could get it safe out once. Score:

Cubs Get Shapenets.
New York, Aug. 31.—Heinie Zim is going back to his first love—third base. This was part of an item of interest released last night by Manager Brennen after he had officially welcomed Joe Schultz, late of the Dodgers, into the Cub fold. By the same token, Artie Phelan, one of the original boy scouts, returned to the bench in the role of utility infielder, for Rozee has assigned Schultz to the keystone sack and proposes to finish the season there with the blond newcomer.

The chances are Joe would have broken into the Bruin lineup yesterday but for the rain, which prevented the Cub-Giant series and made necessary a double-header on the Polo grounds today.

Schultz and Larry Cheney, for whom he was traded with a cash consideration of $3,000 out of Squire Ebbets' strong box, said their farewells to their former comrades yesterday morning and each crossed the bridge to report to his new pilot. Cheney invaded Brooklyn at just about the same time Schultz called on Brennen. Both athletes expressed pleasure over their new berth.

BASKETBALL RULES
SAME FOR ALL, NOW

New York, Aug. 31.—A committee appointed by the Amateur Athletic union to confer with the college athletic authorities regarding basketball announced today that for the first time in the history of that game the amateur and collegiate rules this year will be alike.

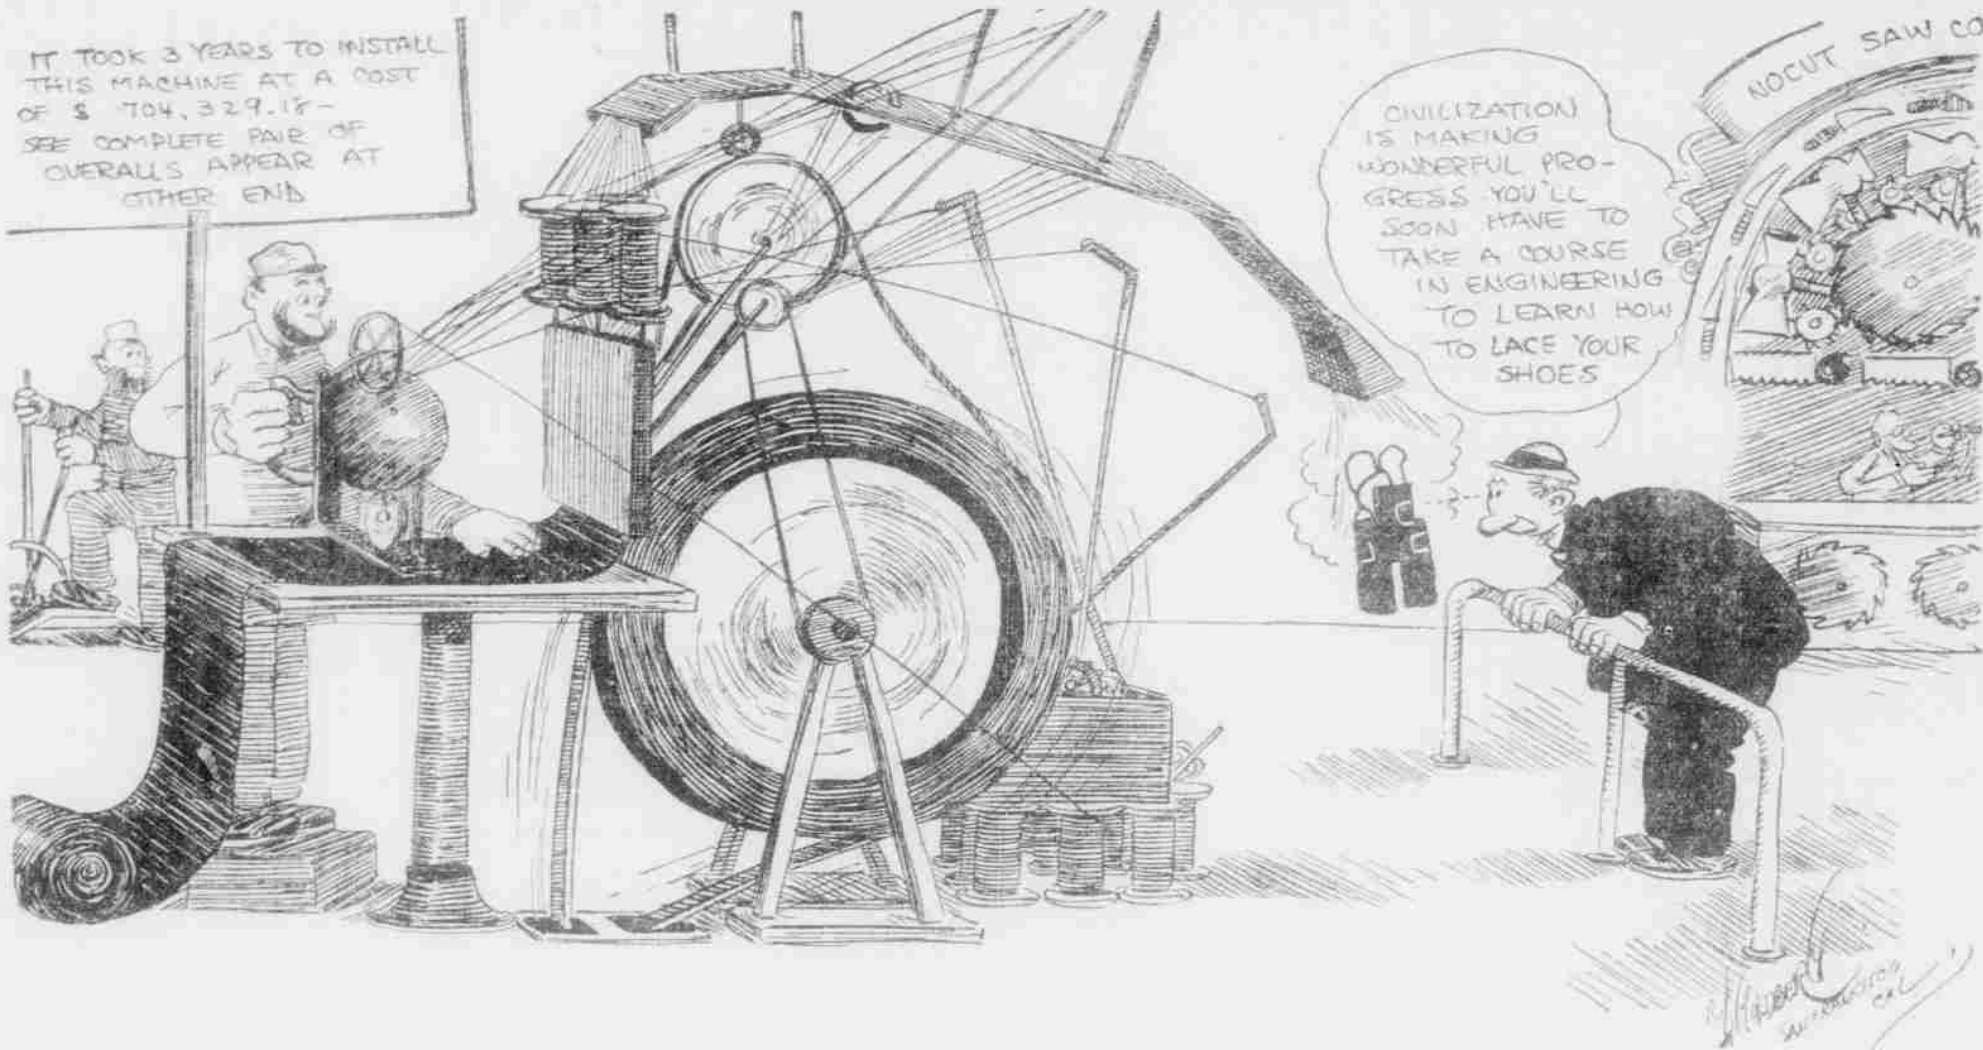

The principal point of disagreement was the dribble rule. The rule now adopted is in substance as follows: Dribbling will be permitted, and at the end of the dribble, a player will be allowed to throw for goal and if he makes the goal it will count.

Heretofore the amateur rules did not permit the scoring of a goal after a dribble.

Ban Is After Gamblers.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 31.—President R. B. Johnson of the American league is exercised over the stories from Boston that gambling is flourishing unchecked in the ball parks there. He said yesterday that he would not have paid any attention to the reports had not the American league park been mentioned, and now Ban is going after the bettors with renewed vigor. He is going east and may start something as soon as he gets to the seaboard.

With the score 2 to 0 against them the Plow boys landed on Schlansker in the sixth inning on their home lot yesterday, scoring five runs, finally defeating Bloomington in a listless game by a score of 9 to 6. After the visitors had pounded Neal for four runs in the seventh stanza, Manager Hughes again called on the ever-ready Hod Eller, who again assumed the rescue role in great style, holding the Bloomers helpless in the two final innings.

Bloomington got two runs at the very start of the contest on two singles and a double steal. Schlansker mowed the Plow boys down with his heartening regularity until the sixth frame, when the home sluggers lit on his offerings with a vengeance, a conglomeration of hits and errors resulting in five runs. Moline added three more in the seventh, the final marker coming in the eighth. The score:

UMP SINGS DITTIES
WHEN FANS NAG

New York, Aug. 31.—The reason for Umpire Byron's troubles is hereby explained.

He sings during the game! Several Giants have noticed it and Roger Bresnahan, Cub catcher-manager, is the man who had finally to expose the ump. says the New York Evening Mail.

Byron is probably the most indifferent umpire in major league baseball. He is firm but never does he take to heart the remarks of the players and spectators. Never does he brood over his troubles. In fact, the more the players and fans are after him the more he sings.

He drones queer little sing-song things that he makes up as he goes along. The tune, according to the players, is always the same. It is about the same tune you used to use when you were a kid and sang, "Johnny's kept in school—his teacher's going to spank him." A sort of lude-la-de-da-da motif.

That's what drives the players wild. The other day, they say, when one of the Giants was arguing over a decision Byron ignored him and calmly dusted off the plate, singing softly, "Dil-renee of spin-yun. Dil-renee of spin-yun."

The crowd began nagging him. Byron hummed, nonchalantly. "The rabble-king is on me. The rabble-king is on me," as he adjusted his mask. Then he changed his words to "The multitude is so-or. The multitude is so-or."

Byron's calm indifference is what aggravates the players.

MITCHELL LOSES
IN DUNDEE BOUT

New York Italian Man's Milwaukee Scraper in Opening Bout at Brewery City.

Milwaukee, Aug. 31.—A cool night and a fancy scrap to pry the lid off the boxing season in the Badger state brought out a crowd of 4,000 mill followers to witness Tom Andrews' card at the Auditorium last night, featuring Johnny Dundee, the New York Italian, and Ritchie Mitchell, a local product making his debut in big league fighting circles.

From the outset it was evident that Dundee's experience—he has fought three champions—was going to prove a serious handicap to Mitchell, whose efforts have been confined to the "ham-and-egg" class, where he stood out as a "comer." Added to this was Dundee's jumping-jack boxing style that has enabled him to win his way to the front despite his low poundage. He can almost make the featherweight limit.

In the first round Mitchell (11 at 140 and before he had time to get his bearings Dundee was on top of him, showing rights and lefts on his face at will. Mitchell could not stand the rain and in attempting to get into a clinch he ran into a couple of right crosses that sent him to the floor. He was up in a minute. In the second Ritchie went down twice and several hundred fans yelled for Referee Stout to stop it while others started for the exits.

Marched for Archer!

New York, Aug. 31.—It was learned yesterday that Manager McGraw of the Giants might agree to trade Phoebe Margard to the Cubs for Catcher Jimmy Archer, but Margard is determined to play in Brooklyn or not at all, and says he will not go to Chicago.
